Re: [Child initials / investigation or case reference]

To the assigned child protection investigator and supervisor:

I understand Nevada agencies may investigate suspected child abuse or neglect under NRS chapter 432B. I request accurate documentation of my voluntary-consent choices and official written notices.

MY DECISIONS ABOUT VOLUNTARY CONSENT

I do not give blanket advance consent to voluntary interviews of me, consent-based nonemergency home entry or searches, optional adult testing/evaluations, blanket releases of my private records, or proposed voluntary services or safety plans. Please present requests separately and explain the purpose and legal basis so I can consider them, including after consulting counsel. This notice does not override any valid court order, independent investigative authority, lawful child interview or emergency action.

STATE-SPECIFIC RIGHTS, LIMITS AND DEADLINES

- Under NRS 432B.260, the agency is required in specified circumstances to inform the named person of the investigated allegations, subject to lawful confidentiality limits.
- For a substantiated finding and proposed Central Registry placement, NRS 432B.315 requires written notice. Under § 432B.317(1)-(2), an administrative-appeal request must be SUBMITTED to the agency within 15 DAYS AFTER THE DATE THE AGENCY SENT that notice; a hearing generally follows a timely RECEIVED request. Do not calculate from the day of receipt.
- Under NRS 432B.270(1), investigators may interview a child or sibling without parental consent when authorized. If reasonably possible, they must notify a person responsible for the child immediately afterward, unless notification would endanger the child or sibling. A related juvenile adjudication may stay the registry appeal.

PLEASE PROVIDE IN WRITING

- Current parent guide, investigation/reference number, worker/supervisor contacts and allegations that can lawfully be disclosed.
- Separate written descriptions of any adult interview, home entry, testing, evaluation, record release or service/safety plan and authority asserted for compulsory steps.
- The substantiation/registry notice if issued, the date sent, appeal address and instructions, any child-interview notification or lawful reason for delayed notification, available records and complaint procedures.

Please file this notice in the case record and confirm receipt. Nonurgent communication may be sent in writing; for urgent child-safety issues please promptly use available contact methods.
